Closing-Out Sale!

April 1, 1938

Many thanks to you for your previous orders. Because we are nearing the close of the season, we are making special prices on remaining stock. We can, however, supply smaller amounts of many varieties not listed herein as the stock is too small to list. You may order other varieties not listed from our catalog, but we suggest that you make second and third choice in such cases or allow us to substitute because stock may not be available. We would suggest that you make second choice or allow substitution if possible on any order this late in the season, because stocks decrease very rapidly, thus causing delay in filling orders.

We are not listing bulblets because it is so near planting time. Should you want bulblets, we suggest that you order same at once from our previous quotations so that we may be able to meet your needs. We will soon start planting Hence the rush.
